Landings LLP is a full-service Refugee and Immigration Law firm. It was named one of the top law firms in Canada by the Globe and Mail. Landings LLP represents individuals seeking refugee protection, temporary and permanent immigration status in Canada and Canadian citizenship. We also assist individuals and their families when problems arise with their immigration status. In addition, we act for non-government organizations who want legal advice, and we challenge unjust laws and government actions through constitutional litigation. We are often involved in high-profile cases and regularly appear before the Immigration and Refugee Board and all levels of Court, including the Supreme Court of Canada.

We are looking for an articling student or junior associate lawyer to join our growing team.

The articling student or associate lawyer will assist senior counsel with:

- Representing clients at hearings at all divisions of the Immigration and Refugee Board as well as at the Federal Court of Canada.
- Representing clients in written legal applications, such as: appeals at the Refugee Protection Division, Danger Opinions, Pre-Removal Risk Assessment, Humanitarian and Compassionate Applications and deferral of removal applications.
- Analyze complex information and issues relating to immigration, global country conditions, and human rights, legislation and case law in support of applications.
- Prepare applications in various immigration categories (both economic and non-economic) for submission to Immigration, Refugees, Citizenship Canada.

The ideal candidate:

Our ideal candidate has a demonstrated interest in immigration and refugee law, is well-organized, articulate, and thrives in a fast-paced environment. In addition, we are seeking a candidate with the following skills:

- Strong academic record,
- Excellent communication skills, both verbal and written,
- Analytical and empathetic,
- Ability to manage a high-volume practice, and
- Excellent organizational skills.
